ARTICLE I

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Males of the age of twenty-one years or more, and of good moral character, who are in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, shall be eligible to membership in the Club.

Sec. 2. Classes of Membership. There shall be three classes of membership: Resident Voting, Resident Non-voting, and Non-resident. Resident Voting Members shall consist of those who reside in Dallas County, Texas, who are in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, and they shall be the only members with right and power to vote upon and participate in the control and operation of the Club. Resident Non-voting Members shall consist of those who reside in Dallas County, Texas, and who are not in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, who became members of the Club on invitation extended by the Board of Directors of the Club. Such members shall not have any right to vote upon and participate in the control and operation of the Club. Resident Non-voting Members shall pay the same membership fee and dues as are stipulated to be paid by Resident Voting Members. Non-resident Members shall consist of those who do not reside in Dallas County, Texas, and they shall not have any right to vote or participate in the control or management of the Club.

Sec. 3. Additional Qualifications. To qualify for membership in the Club all applicants must pay a membership fee in an amount as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE I

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Males of the age of twenty-one years or more, and of good moral character, who are in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, shall be eligible to membership in the Club.

Sec. 2. Classes of Membership. There shall be two classes of membership:

A. Resident Voting members shall consist of those who reside in Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.

B. Non-resident non-voting members shall consist of those who reside outside of Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.

Classification of members elected prior to January 15, 1941, shall remain as classified at that date.

Sec. 3. Additional Qualifications. To qualify for membership in the Club, all applicants must pay a membership fee in an amount as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 4. Application for Membership. Each applicant for membership shall present to the Secretary for submission to the President, an application in writing, stating his name and address, signed by the applicant himself and by two Resident Voting members of the Club, neither of whom shall be a member of the Membership Committee, accompanied by check for the membership fee and for the dues for the first quarter. All applications shall forthwith be delivered by the Secretary to the President.

Sec. 5. Posting and Approval. The name of each applicant for membership, duly proposed and secand unmarried daughters who form a part of a member's household, shall be entitled to such privileges as may be fixed by the House Committee. The member to whose household such persons belong shall be responsible for the payment of any indebtedness incurred by them.

ARTICLE IX

Miscellaneous

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Club shall begin on the first day of the month of January of each year, and close on the 31st day of December in each year.

Sec. 2. Intoxicating Liquor. The introduction of intoxicating liquor onto the Club premises and the use thereon in violation of Federal, State or local laws, is prohibited. The penalty for the violation of this section of the By-Laws shall be the expulsion of the offending member.

Sec. 3. Gambling. Gambling, in all of its forms, is prohibited. The playing of cards and other games as a social diversion will be permitted under the supervision of the House Committee.

Sec. 4. Bulletin Board. A Club bulletin board shall be placed in a permanent place in the Club rooms. Nothing shall be posted on the bulletin board except by officers of the Club, by the Board of Directors, or by the standing committees.

Sec. 5. Amendments. These By-Laws, or any part thereof, may be amended, modified or repealed at any regular meeting of the membership without notice, or at any Special Meeting, notice thereof having been given to the membership as is provided in Article II, Section 6, (b), hereof; provided, however, that no provision of these By-Laws relating to the mortgaging of the Club's property or the borrowing of money, or the incurring of indebtedness may be amended except upon a vote of a majority of all members of record, at a regular or special called meeting, as herein provided.

By-Laws

ARTICLE I

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Males of the age of twenty-one years or more, and of good moral character, who are in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, shall be eligible to membership in the Club.

Sec. 2. Classes of Membership. There shall be two classes of membership:

- A. Resident Voting members shall consist of those who reside in Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.
- B. Non-resident non-voting members shall consist of those who reside outside of Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.

Classification of members elected prior to January 15, 1941, shall remain as classified at that date.

Sec. 3. Additional Qualifications. To qualify for membership in the Club, all applicants must pay a membership fee in an amount as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 4. Application for Membership. Each applicant for membership shall present to the Secretary for submission to the President, an application in writing, stating his name and address, signed by the applicant himself and by two Resident Voting members of the Club, neither of whom shall be a member of the Membership Committee, accompanied by check for the membership fee and for the dues for the first quarter. All applications shall forthwith be delivered by the Secretary to the President.

Sec. 5. Posting and Approval. The name of each applicant for membership, duly proposed and secand unmarried daughters who form a part of a member's household, shall be entitled to such privileges as may be fixed by the House Committee. The member to whose household such persons belong shall be responsible for the payment of any indebtedness incurred by them.

ARTICLE IX

Miscellaneous

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Club shall begin on the first day of the month of January of each year, and close on the 31st day of December in each year.

Sec. 2. Intoxicating Liquor. The introduction of intoxicating liquor onto the Club premises and the use thereon in violation of Federal, State or local laws, is prohibited. The penalty for the violation of this section of the By-Laws shall be the expulsion of the offending member.

Sec. 3. Gambling. Gambling, in all of its forms, is prohibited. The playing of cards and other games as a social diversion will be permitted under the supervision of the House Committee.

Sec. 4. Bulletin Board. A Club bulletin board shall be placed in a permanent place in the Club rooms. Nothing shall be posted on the bulletin board except by officers of the Club, by the Board of Directors, or by the standing committees.

Sec. 5. Amendments. These By-Laws, or any part thereof, may be amended, modified or repealed at any regular meeting of the membership without notice, or at any Special Meeting, notice thereof having been given to the membership as is provided in Article II, Section 5 (b), hereof; provided, however, that no provision of these By-Laws relating to the mortgaging of the Club's property or the borrowing of money, or the incurring of indebtedness may be amended except upon a vote of a majority of all members of record, at a regular or special called meeting, as herein provided.

ARTICLE I

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Males of the age of twenty-one years or more, and of good moral character, who are in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, shall be eligible to membership in the Club.

Sec. 2. Classes of Membership. There shall be two classes of membership:

- A. Resident Voting members shall consist of those who reside in Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.
- B. Non-resident non-voting members shall consist of those who reside outside of Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.

Classification of members elected prior to January 15, 1941, shall remain as classified at that date.

Sec. 3. Additional Qualifications. To qualify for membership in the Club, all applicants must pay a membership fee in an amount as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 4. Application for Membership. Each applicant for membership shall present to the Secretary for submission to the President, an application in writing, stating his name and address, signed by the applicant himself and by two Resident Voting members of the Club, neither of whom shall be a member of the Membership Committee, accompanied by check for the membership fee and for the dues for the first quarter. All applications shall forthwith be delivered by the Secretary to the President.

Sec. 5. Posting and Approval. The name of each applicant for membership, duly proposed and sec-of this section of the By-Laws shall be the expulsion of the offending member.

Sec. 3. Gambling. Gambling, in all of its forms, is prohibited. The playing of cards and other games as a social diversion will be permitted under the supervision of the House Committee.

Sec. 4. Bulletin Board. A Club bulletin board shall be placed in a permanent place in the Club rooms. Nothing shall be posted on the bulletin board except by officers of the Club, by the Board of Directors, or by the standing committees.

Sec. 5. Amendments. These By-Laws, or any part thereof, may be amended, modified or repealed at any regular meeting of the membership without notice, or at any Special Meeting, notice thereof having been given to the membership as is provided in Article II, Section 5 (b), hereof; provided, however, that no provision of these By-Laws relating to the mortgaging of the Club's property or the borrowing of money, or the incurring of indebtedness may be amended except upon a vote of a majority of all members of record, at a regular or special called meeting, as herein provided.

ARTICLE I

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Males of the age of twenty-one years or more, and of good moral character, who are in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, shall be eligible to membership in the Club.

Sec. 2. Classes of Membership. There shall be two classes of membership:

- A. Resident Voting members shall consist of those who reside in Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.
- B. Non-resident non-voting members shall consist of those who reside outside of Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.

Classification of members elected prior to January 15, 1941, shall remain as classified at that date.

Sec. 3. Additional Qualifications. To qualify for membership in the Club, all applicants must pay a membership fee in an amount as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 4. Application for Membership. Each applicant for membership shall present to the Secretary for submission to the President, an application in writing, stating his name and address, signed by the applicant himself and by two Resident Voting members of the Club, neither of whom shall be a member of the Membership Committee, accompanied by check for the membership fee and for the dues for the first quarter. All applications shall forthwith be delivered by the Secretary to the President.

Sec. 5. Posting and Approval. The name of each applicant for membership, duly proposed and use thereon in violation of Federal, State or local laws, is prohibited. The penalty for the violation of this section of the By-Laws shall be the expulsion of the offending member.

Sec. 3. Gambling. Gambling, in all of its forms, is prohibited. The playing of cards and other games as a social diversion will be permitted under the supervision of the House Committee.

Sec. 4. Bulletin Board. A Club bulletin board shall be placed in a permanent place in the Club rooms. Nothing shall be posted on the bulletin board except by officers of the Club, by the Board of Directors, or by the standing committees.

Sec. 5. Amendments. These By-Laws, or any part thereof, may be amended, modified or repealed at any regular meeting of the membership without notice, or at any Special Meeting, notice thereof having been given to the membership as is provided in Article II, Section 5 (b), hereof; provided, however, that no provision of these By-Laws relating to the mortgaging of the Club's property or the borrowing of money, or the incurring of indebtedness may be amended except upon a vote of a majority of all members of record, at a regular or special called meeting, as herein provided.

DALLAS PETROLEUM CLUB

Section 1. Eligibility. Males of the age of twenty-one years or more, and of good moral character, who are in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, shall be eligible to membership in the Club.

Sec. 2. Classes of Membership. There shall be

A. Resident Voting members shall consist of those who reside in Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.

B. Non-resident non-voting members shall consist of those who reside outside of Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.

Classification of members elected prior to January 15, 1941, shall remain as classified at that date.

Sec. 3. Additional Qualifications. To qualify for membership in the Club, all applicants must two classes of membership:

pay a membership fee in an amount as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 4. Application for Membership. Each applicant for membership shall present to the Secretary for submission to the President, an application in writing, stating his name and address, signed by the applicant himself and by two Resident Voting members of the Club, neither of whom shall be a member of the Membership Committee, accompanied by check for the membership fee and for the dues for the first quarter. All applications shall forthwith be delivered by the Secretary to the President.

Sec. 5. Posting and Approval. The name of each applicant for membership, duly proposed and shall be posted by the Secretary upon

ARTICLE IX

Miscellaneous

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Club shall begin on the first day of the month of January of each year, and close on the 31st day of December in each year.

Sec. 2. Intoxicating Liquor. The introduction of intoxicating liquor onto the Club premises and the use thereon in violation of Federal, State or local laws, is prohibited. The penalty for the violation of this section of the By-Laws shall be the expulsion of the offending member.

Sec. 3. Gambling. Gambling, in all of its forms, is prohibited. The playing of cards and other games as a social diversion will be permitted under the supervision of the House Committee.

Sec. 4. Bulletin Board. A Club bulletin board shall be placed in a permanent place in the Club rooms. Nothing shall be posted on the bulletin board except by officers of the Club, by the Board of Directors, or by the standing committees.

Sec. 5. Amendments. These By-Laws, or any part thereof, may be amended, modified or repealed at any regular meeting of the membership without notice, or at any Special Meeting, notice thereof having been given to the membership as is provided in Article II, Section 5 (b), hereof; provided, however, that no provision of these By-Laws relating to the mortgaging of the Club's property or the borrowing of the Club's property or the borrowing of money, or the incurring of indebtedness may be amended except upon a vote of a majority of all members of record, at a regular or special called meeting, as herein provided.

By-Laws

ARTICLE I

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Males of the age of twenty-one years or more, and of good moral character, who are in any manner part of the oil and/or gas industry, shall be eligible to membership in the Club.

Sec. 2. Classes of Membership. There shall be two classes of membership:

- A. Resident Voting members shall consist of those who reside in Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.
- B. Non-resident non-voting members shall consist of those who reside outside of Dallas County, Texas, and whose principal business activity is in the oil and gas industry.

Classification of members elected prior to January 15, 1941, shall remain as classified at that date.

Sec. 3. Additional Qualifications. To qualify for membership in the Club, all applicants must pay a membership fee in an amount as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 4. Application for Membership. Each applicant for membership shall present to the Secretary for submission to the President, an application in writing, stating his name and address, signed by the applicant himself and by two Resident Voting members of the Club, neither of whom shall be a member of the Membership Committee, accompanied by check for the membership fee and for the dues for the first quarter. All applications shall forthwith be delivered by the Secretary to the President.

Sec. 5. Posting and Approval. The name of each applicant for membership, duly proposed and seconded, shall be posted by the Secretary upon

ARTICLE IX

Miscellaneous

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Club shall begin on the first day of the month of January of each year, and close on the 31st day of December in each year.

Sec. 2. Intoxicating Liquor. The introduction of intoxicating liquor onto the Club premises and the use thereon in violation of Federal, State or local laws, is prohibited. The penalty for the violation of this section of the By-Laws shall be the expulsion of the offending member.

Sec. 3. Gambling. Gambling, in all of its forms, is prohibited. The playing of cards and other games as a social diversion will be permitted under the supervision of the House Committee.

Sec. 4. Bulletin Board. A Club bulletin board shall be placed in a permanent place in the Club rooms. Nothing shall be posted on the bulletin board except by officers of the Club, by the Board of Directors, or by the standing committees.

Sec. 5. Amendments. These By-Laws, or any part thereof, may be amended, modified or repealed at any regular meeting of the membership without notice, or at any Special Meeting, notice thereof having been given to the membership as is provided in Article II, Section 5 (b), hereof; provided, however, that no provision of these By-Laws relating to the mortgaging of the Club's property or the borrowing of money, or the incurring of indebtedness may be amended except upon a vote of a majority of all members of record, at a regular or special called meeting, as herein provided.
